

MYSTERIES of the ROSARY

A seven-part series filmed in the Holy Land hosted by Mark Hartfiel
First Episode to Debut in January

PARADISUS DEI™

Pope St. John Paul II called the Rosary his favorite prayer.

Saint Padre Pio said the Rosary is the best weapon to combat the power of evil in our day.

Paradisus Dei Vice President Mark Hartfiel hosts a new seven-part series — Mysteries of the Rosary — designed to lead Christians into a deeper contemplation of the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. The series' first episode debuts in January, and the entire series is slated for release on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 22, 2023.

Filmed in the Holy Land, the series makes the Rosary come alive in the hearts and minds of the participants. Encounters with Christ in the episodes will lead to even deeper encounters with the Lord Jesus in personal prayer and contemplation. The series is also designed to help equip Jesus' followers to engage in the spiritual battle for hearts, minds, and souls being waged all around us.

"This call to prayer is urgent, and the stakes couldn't be any higher," Hartfiel said. "I invite you to journey with me. We need to let the Mysteries explode our vision and open our eyes to new spiritual realities.... It's the greatest love story of all time. It's the story that transformed the world!"

The video series, produced by 4PM Media, is accompanied by a companion study program for individuals or groups in a family- or parish-based setting. In Lent 2023, the series and educational program will focus on the Sorrowful Mysteries. In years following, the series will delve into the Joyful, Luminous, and Glorious mysteries of the Rosary.
